

Name: _____ Date: _____

Book 27 Fiction Volume 1

Concept 34 (Compound Words)

Seth, Dad, and the Fish

Written by: Susan Clewis

Red Words: a, and, blue, do, for, good, have, is, put, said, the, to, want, you

Vocabulary Words: catfish, catnip

Dad said to Seth, "I have a blue fish and a catfish for you. Put the catfish in the bathtub," said Dad.

"But Dad, I want to put the blue fish in the bathtub," said Seth.

Dad said, "No, Seth, it will not be good to put the blue fish with the catfish. You cannot do that. It will upset the catfish if the blue fish is in the bathtub. The catfish will get mad at the blue fish. You can put the blue fish in the dishpan," said Dad.

"Yes," said Seth, "I will put the blue fish in the dishpan. The catfish will fit in the bathtub. He is big, and the blue fish is not. I will get catnip for the catfish," said Seth.

"No," said Dad. "Catnip is for a cat, not a fish."

"So, no catnip for the catfish, Dad?" said Seth.

"No catnip for the catfish," said Dad.

Name: _____ Date: _____

Comprehension Questions:

1. What did Dad get for Seth? _____
2. Where did Dad tell Seth to put the catfish? _____

3. Where did Seth want both of the fish? _____

4. Why didn't Dad want Seth to put the two fish together? _____

5. What did Seth want to feed the catfish? _____
6. Why couldn't he feed the catfish the catnip? _____

Writing Activity:

Have you ever gone fishing? If so, write about that experience. If not, is that something you'd want to do? Why or why not?
