Vocabulary Words: draft, pact, rant, wilt

Kent felt he would melt from the hot sun. Even the plant began to wilt from the sun.

"I wish I could swim, but my leg is in a cast," said Kent. The fact was that he could not swim. "I want to yell and rant," said Kent. He said, "If I draft a pact with Mom, I will not go on a rant."

The pact said that if he could have Brad and Fred over to grill, he would not rant. Brad and Fred were at the dentist and could not grill with Kent. Kent began to rant.

His mom said, "If I can trust that you will stop the rant, we can plan a trip in a tent."

Kent was glad for the pact with his mom. The cast did not stop them from a tent trip.
