Levi and Sam went to camp at the pond. They put up the tent.

It was a grand day to go to the pond. So Levi and Sam went to the pond for a swim. They got into the pond.

Levi said, "Do you see that frog?" They both saw the frog. The frog had to hop fast to get out of the pond. Levi and Sam had to jump out of the pond. They ran to the tent.

"I have a hunch that Levi will want lunch," Sam said to himself. Sam went to get his lunchbox. He had a muffin and a cup of milk for both of them.

Levi had a gulp of milk and a fresh muffin. Some of the muffin fell on the grass and in the tent.

"Let us get this mess in the trash can and go to the pond for a swim," said Sam. Sam swept the muffin out of the tent and into the trash can. "We can go for a swim," said Sam. Into the pond they went.

Levi said, "Sam, there is a windmill on the hill. The wind is brisk, but we can still swim."

They swam and swam until the sun went down. Then Levi and Sam slept in the tent.
