

Name: _____ Date: _____

Book 38 Fiction Volume 1

Concept 45 (-ck)

The Black Pickup Truck

Written by: Susan Clewis

Red Words: a, as, could, for, from, good, has, his, into, is, one, of, out, put, should, some, the, there, they, to, was, way, which, would, you, your

Vocabulary Words: flock, landfill

Jack has a big black pickup truck. He will get some mulch to put by the dock at the pond. He went to the landfill to get the mulch.

When he got to the landfill, Jack had to back up to the shack, which was in the back of the landfill. He had to get the mulch into his truck. There was no one to help him.

The mulch was so wet. It was not fun for him with no one to help dump the mulch into the bed of the truck. At last, he got the mulch into the truck bed. He left the landfill with the mulch and went back to the pond.

His buddy Rick was back at the pond to help him with the mulch. But Jack could not get to the dock. There was a flock that would not get out of the way.

Jack had to stop and honk to get the flock to go. They did not go. He got out of the truck and began to yell at the flock. They began to quack. It was a big mess!

Jack ran to get the flock out of the way, but he fell flat on his back. He got up as the flock began to run. He got the truck next to the dock. Jack and his buddy Rick got the mulch off the truck bed. They put the mulch next to the dock.

"It is good, Rick," said Jack. "Thank you for your help."

Name: _____ Date: _____

Comprehension Questions:

1. What did Jack's truck look like? _____
2. Where did Jack go with his truck? What did he need to get?

3. Who was able to help Jack when he returned to the lake?

4. There was a problem when he returned. What kept Jack from getting next to the dock? _____

5. What is a flock? What kind of flock was in the story? _____

6. How did Jack try to solve the problem? How did it finally end? _____

7. Think of a time you were able to help a friend. _____

Writing Activity:

Have you ever helped someone with work? What did you do?
Write about it.
