

Name: _____ Date: _____

Book 42 Fiction Volume 1

Concept 49 (y as a vowel /ē/)

Kelly and the Tiny Pony

Red Words: a, all, could, for, from, good, her, his, is, of, said, saw, see, the, to, want, was, you

Vocabulary Words: fussy, lucky, panic, suddenly

Maxwell had to babysit. He had babysat in the past and was good at it.

Kelly the baby was happy all the time. Kelly did not cry. Maxwell said, "I am lucky that baby Kelly is so happy."

Kelly had a tiny plastic pony. Maxwell could not locate the pony. Suddenly, Kelly began to get fussy. Maxwell did not want to panic, but he simply did not want to see the baby cry.

He did not see the pony by the crib. He did not see the pony by the bathtub. Maxwell did not see the pony by the blanket. Kelly was so fussy!

At last, Maxwell saw the tiny plastic pony. Lucky the dog had it in his bed. "No, Lucky," said Maxwell. "That is not for you. That is for Kelly."

Maxwell got the tiny pony from Lucky. Maxwell gave the pony to Kelly. The baby was not fussy! Kelly was happy.

Name: _____ Date: _____

Comprehension Questions:

1. What kind of baby was Kelly? How do you know? _____

2. What couldn't Maxwell locate? Why was that a problem? _____

3. Where did Maxwell look for the toy? _____

4. Where was the toy? _____

5. What happened in the end? _____

Writing Activity:

Have you ever had a babysitter? If not, would you want a babysitter? Write about it.
