

Name: _____ Date: _____

Book 43 Fiction Volume 1
Concept 50 (Soft c and g)

The Race

Written by: Susan Clewis

Red Words: a, center, could, day, done, down, from, going, her, his, look, of, put, saw, see, the, they, to, too, was, were, where, would

Vocabulary Words: pothole, sibling, success

The day of the race was here! Geffry was happy to run in the city race. His sibling, Nancy, was going to run too.

Nancy and Geffry went to the stage where the race would begin. Then they got in line. The fake race gun gave a blast, and off they went. Nancy ran fast.

Nancy saw that Geffry was in the back. She did not look to see where she was going. She did not see the pothole on the path.

Nancy fell. She put her hand down to brace herself and protect her face from the pavement. By the time Geffry got to her, she was up.

She had a cut in the center of her hand, and her leg was red. It was not too bad, so Nancy kept on with the race. She could get ice and help for her hand and leg when she was done.

Geffry and Nancy were done with the race. They did not win a prize, but they were glad they did not quit. Geffry gave Nancy a hug. The race was a success!

Name: _____ Date: _____

Comprehension Questions:

1. Who was running in the race? _____
2. What is a sibling? _____
3. How did the people in the race know when to start running?

4. What happened to Nancy when she looked back at Geffry?

5. Did Nancy get hurt? _____
6. What did Nancy decide to do about the rest of the race? _____

7. Did they win the race? How did Nancy and Geffry feel about the race? _____

Writing Activity:

Write about a time when you were in a race. What kind of race was it? What happened?
