

Name: _____ Date: _____

Book 44 Fiction Volume 1

Concept 51 (Suffix -ed)

Max and the Glass

Written by: Susan Clewis

Red Words: a, are, as, could, for, from, good, have, his, into, of, or, said, should, some, the, to, want, what, you, your

Vocabulary Words: dustpan, plastic

Crash! Bang! Bam!

"What happened?" yelled Mom.

"I made a glass drop from the shelf, and it broke," said Max.

"I just wanted to get milk before I went to bed."

"Are you OK?" asked Mom. "You should have asked for some help, Max. Dad or I could have helped you get the glass."

Mom wanted to yell at Max, but she did not. Mom said, "Let me help with the mess of glass. It can cut your hand." Mom brushed up the glass into a dustpan. She went to the trash can to dump the glass.

Max held the trash can lid open for Mom as she dumped the glass into the can. Mom commented to Dad on what a good job Max did.

Dad said, "Yes, Max did a good job!"

“Next time, you can get the plastic cup, or you can ask for help,” said Mom. “The plastic will not cut you.”

“Thank you, Mom. It was good that you helped me,” said Max. “The glass would have cut my hand. Next time, Mom, I will ask you or Dad for help or get a plastic cup to drink my milk.”

Max got a plastic cup for the milk from the shelf so he could have a drink before he went to bed. He drank his cup of milk and went to bed.

“Thank you, Mom. The milk was good,” said Max. Max went to bed and slept well.

Name: _____ Date: _____

Comprehension Questions:

1. There was a crashing sound. What happened? _____

2. Why was Max trying to get a glass? _____

3. What did Mom do to help Max? _____

4. How did Max help Mom? _____
5. What did his mom say to his dad about the job Max did? _____

6. What did his mom tell Max to use next time he wanted something to drink? Why do you think she said to get a plastic cup? _____

Writing Activity:

Have you ever broken anything? If not, how would you handle it if you did? Write about it.
