

Name: _____ Date: _____

Book 26 Fiction Volume 1

Concept 33 (ss, ll, ff, zz)

Bill, Bess, Tiff, and Jazz

Written by: Susan Clewis

Doubling Rule: 1-1-1 rule: One syllable, one short vowel and word ends with an s, l, f, z — double the final consonant

Red Words: a, and, do, his, is, like, said, see, the, to, went

Vocabulary Words: chill, fuss

Bill can yell up the hill to Bess. Bill said to Bess, “That is a mess! Chill!”

So, Bess did chill on the hill. Then, Tiff went up the hill to see Bess.

Tiff had a fuss with Bess and said, “I do not like this mess, Bess.”

“Jazz the dog did it and got his fuzz on me,” said Bess.

“Get Jazz off the hill, and get that fuzz and mess up,” said Tiff.

She went off the hill in a huff. Bill said to Bess, Tiff, and Jazz, “Chill, chill, chill!”